Unemployment drops 3.2%

As the recession gradually weakens and the economy strengthens, the unemployment picture in Granite City and Madison County showed continued improvement during February, according to preliminary figures released Friday by the Illinois Department of Labor, Bureau of Employment Security.

Granite City's unemployment rate dropped 3.2 percent, from 21.4 percent to 18.2 percent, partially due to limited callbacks at Granite City Steel and other businesses, but mostly due to a reduction in the size of the labor force. Madison County's unemployment rate also dropped 1.5 percent, to 14.6 percent in February's preliminary figures.

Belleville now has the highest unemployment rate, showing an increase from 19.6 percent in January's final figures to 22.2 percent in February, according to Friday's report. Granite City follows at 18.2 percent, trailed by Alton at 16.5 percent and East St. Louis with 15.4 percent of the workforce registered for unemployment.

The Granite City figures show the workforce, both employed and unemployed, declined from 26,225 in January to 19,200 in February while the number of persons seeking employment dropped from 4,325 to 3,500 in the same periods. The number listed as employed dropped slightly, from 15,900 to 15,700.

Statewide, unemployment climbed from 13.5 percent in January to 13.9 percent in February. In the Illinois Section of the study area, made up of Madison, St. Clair, Clinton and Monroe counties, unemployment stayed at 14.3 percent in both January and February. According to Vanda Gerstenecker of the research and analysis division of the Bureau of Employment Security, "In the total Illinois Section, the rate of unemployment equals the previous month as employers struggle to maintain their current workforce."

Chamber seeks new executive

By GEORGEANN MCGEE
of the Press-Record

Alan G. Richardson, director and executive vice president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, confirmed late last week that he will resign his position tentatively May 2.

He was hired here to expand the Chamber's long-time efforts to spur economic development and growth of the Quad-City employment base.

Richardson will become the Central Illinois Public Service Company (CIPS) Western Division economic development representative. He will relocate in Beardstown, Ill.

His resignation has already been received by the Chamber's Executive Committee and will be presented to the full board on Wednesday.

A search committee currently is screening applications to locate a successor to Richardson as quickly as possible. The board wants to avoid hiring an interim director, said Richardson, who anticipates having an input in who will follow his footsteps.

According to Richardson, the Chamber intends to continue his policies and individual programs for economic development, including locating and trying to entice here specific industries that are particularly suited to this area.

Richardson assumed his duties at the Chamber in August, 1981, after leaving a three-year position with the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association as an economic development consultant.

At the time, Granite City's unemployment rate was 10.9 percent. Since then, he has had to fight an uphill battle as he watched that rate double. The director said he regrets departing now that the economy is finally "starting that climb upward."

Renewed business activity at the national level is being reflected by members of the local business community.

Bonds sought for Smith reopening

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Officials from A. O. Smith Corp. in Milwaukee, Wis., will seek final approval of a resolution at Tuesday's Granite City Council meeting to obtain up to $30 million in industrial revenue bonds for reopening the Granite City automotive frame plant, Jack Birchill, director of public relations and marketing communications for A. O. Smith, told the Press-Record this morning.

Representatives from corporate headquarters were in Granite City last week, but will not attend the council meeting, he said.

Since the application for the industrial revenue bonds was filed with the city clerk last week, rumors have circulated that A. O. Smith had signed a contract with General Motors Corp.

Birchill, however, said that is not true. "We are continuously looking for additional contracts with all the major automobile and truck builders," he added.

Early this year, the company signed a contract with Ford Motor Co. to produce a new front structure for 1986 Ford passenger cars. That contract led to the announced reopening of the Granite City facility.

The plant will reopen in mid 1984 or early 1985 and some renovation work will take place later this year, Birchill said.

Application for the industrial revenue bonds is an initial step in seeking funds for the plant's renovation and is a standard method of obtaining monies, he indicated.

Engineering studies are underway in Milwaukee, but at this time Birchill said he could not estimate the cost of renovation and reopening the plant. Should the bond resolution be approved, the company will have authorization to begin renovation before the money comes through, he said.

In addition to the industrial revenue bonds, Madison County officials have initiated action to obtain an Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) for renovation. There will be a public hearing Thursday, April 14, at 6:30 p.m. in the Granite City Council Chambers about the grant.

Citizen input will be solicited at the hearing. Employment opportunities also will be discussed.

Birchill said that the county is seeking $2.5 to $3 million, which it then would lend to A. O. Smith.

Granite City Attorney Leo Konzen has been retained by the company to handle dealings in this area. Konzen told the Press-Record that the application for industrial revenue bonds and for the grant are but two of the options available to A. O. Smith for funding.

The applications are being processed

Warns of new threat to steel industry

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

Steelworkers and the government must work together to stop a move which "would be the beginning of the end of the basic steel industry in this country," Buddy Davis, District 34 director of United Steelworkers of America, told the Granite City Optimist Club during a visit Thursday afternoon.

Davis noted that U.S. Steel Corp. is "contemplating" purchasing steel slabs and billets from Great Britain for processing in U.S. Steel plants in the United States.

"It's just unthinkable. The ink isn't yet dry on our (Steelworkers') agreement to save the steel industry, and they want to buy foreign slabs," Davis said, noting that the Steelworkers recently agreed to wage and fringe benefit concessions of more than 11 percent to aid the ailing steel industry.

He warned, "If U.S. Steel does it (buys foreign slabs and billets), every other steel company will have to remain competitive. If that happens in Granite City, there will be no need for the blast furnaces, no need of the ROP (basic oxygen furnaces) operation, no continuous slab caster, since that makes a slab. It would cost Granite City Steel 1,500 to 1,600 jobs if they would do what U.S. Steel is contemplating.

"Multiply that by all the steel mills in the United States and you are talking about thousands and thousands of jobs. It's scary," Davis stated.

He said United Steelworkers of America is launching "an all-out attack" on this, urging the government to bar such purchases of foreign steel slabs. "This betrays all of the cooperative efforts we all strove for in January, when we were talking of a way to make the steel industry survive," he stated, adding, "There is a tremendous uproar."

"We knew there was a loophole in the (importation) law on slabs, but we never dreamed in our wildest dreams that a steel mill would buy them," he added.

He noted that the steel industry in Great Britain is government owned, while the government in the United States does not even subsidize the production of steel.

He said he is surprised U.S. Steel would consider buying steel from Great Britain, since the mills there are "the least productive anywhere in the free world, and the least cost effective."

He added that availability of the slabs could not be the reason for considering foreign purchases. "There is a world wide surplus of steel, particularly slabs. Every underdeveloped nation on Earth wants to start a little steel mill and then cannot process the steel, so they sell their steel to other countries. They dump their unemployment on us, America, the biggest dumping ground in the world," Davis said.

Davis predicted a concerted effort by the Steelworkers in the near future to convince the steel companies and government that slabs should not be purchased from Great Britain, but should be manufactured in the United States.

Unemployment can cause a mental strain on victims

By PAT HAY LUTZ
for the Press-Record

With the unemployment rate in Granite City listed as 18.2 percent in February, many Granite Cityans have had to take a second look at traditional values and lifestyles in surviving the economic difficulties encountered by such a high rate of unemployment. For many families, the man has been the breadwinner and the wife has never worked outside the home, but layoffs have forced wives to take jobs to supplement their husband's unemployment benefits. Often, husbands feel a sense of guilt about not being able to "provide" for their family, as they have in the past, and feel awkward seeing their wives off to work while they look after the home.

One Granite City man, who asked not to be identified, related his feelings of embarrassment. "I've been married for 13 years and always worked hard to provide for my family. My wife stayed home and we were happy that way. Now, I spend my mornings being told that there's no work for me and watch my wife go to work in the afternoon. She has to work all evening doing telephone work based on commission, and she misses her kids. It's embarrassing to be so helpless — like I'm not doing anything anymore."

Many women who are working to supplement unemployment income are unhappy about their new roles. A Granite Cityman, who wished to be

Is your medicine cabinet like Fibber McGee's closet? The contents fall out when you open the door? It shouldn't! The narrow shelves should not be cluttered with prescriptions no longer in use and should be discarded. Some weaken, others gain in strength with the passing of time. ## Signups for PIK below expectations

By PAIGEST JOHN
Only between one-fourth to one-third of the farmers in Madison and St. Clair County chose to participate in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Payment-in-Kind program.

Even so, nation-wide the PIK program has been a success. More than one out of every three (38 percent) acres of grain farmland will be left idle under the program.

In Madison County, farmers have signed up to set aside only 14 percent, 9,264 acres, of all corn land and nine percent, 5,886 acres, of all wheat. Even so, Alberta Ringering, acting director of the county's Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office, said she thought the PIK program was successful here.

St. Clair County had a little better turnout: farmers sign up to set aside 11.8 percent, 8,477 acres, of wheat land and 19.5 percent of the land on which corn would have been planted.

In Madison County, 503 wheat farmers and 567 corn farmers, out of 1,962 and 1,651 total farmers respectively, decided to participate in the federal government's program.

In St. Clair County, 658 of the 1,706 corn farmers and 732 of the 3,179 wheat farmers decided to participate. Both county agriculture offices said they had expected more farmers to sign up.

"I thought there would be a little more, considering the traffic we had through here earlier," Mrs. Ringering said. Quite a few farmers came to the Madison County office to find out about the program, but a good number of them apparently decided not to join, she said.

The PIK program is designed to help raise market prices of grain and boost farm income by reducing surplus government stockpiles.

In return for setting aside specified acreages, farmers receive credit for 80 to 95 percent of what their average yield of grain would be. They may sell the grain at the elevator or take it home with them.

Rural Collinsville farmer Diane Peach said she and her husband decided to participate in the PIK program "because it will help us, and everyone else, too."

Host faculty at salad luncheon

The executive board of Maryville School PTA hosted a salad luncheon for faculty members last week in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Jule Patton, PTA hospitality chairman, organized the luncheon and awarded an attendance prize to Mary Kay Rowden.

Among the board members serving as hostesses were Barbara Haddock, PTA president, Linda Gordon, Brenda Weekman, Sara Repp, Linda Badger and Kathy Mitchell.

RETURN STOLEN AUTO WITH BODY DAMAGE

Vickie Coleman, 3904 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported last week that her 1975 auto, which had been parked in a lot in the 4600 block of Kirkpatrick Homes, was removed, wrecked and returned to a "no parking" area in the same lot.

The entire right side of the vehicle had been damaged and a large quantity of weeds was caught underneath the car.

Mrs. Coleman advised officers that when she returned home the previous night, a 14-year-old babysitter had a boyfriend at the Coleman apartment and the pair was arguing.

The woman then went to bed, leaving the babysitter and friend in the apartment and placing the keys on the kitchen table, she reported.

The keys were on top of the refrigerator when she awakened the next morning.

PROPERTY DAMAGE
After allegedly splintering a cue stick at the Granite City Game Room, 2420 Nameoki Road, last week, Brian K. Arnold, 18, of 2820 National Ave., was charged with criminal damage to property. He was released on payment of a $52 cash bond.

Thirty-eight compete in spelling bee

The Grigsby Junior High School spelling bee attracted 38 contestants for the annual district-wide event.

The participants represented the district Language Arts classes. Beth Johannigmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johannigmeier, 3800 Benton St., was the overall winner. She will advance to the St. Louis spelling finals April 16.

Julie Ridlen and Laura Riggs were the second- and third-place winners.

The pronouncer for the event was Jim Mullen, boys' counselor. Virginia Bozarth and Mary Turner, Language Arts Department chairmen, were the judges.

In addition to the winners, contestants were: Tammy Ames, Julie Austin, Missy Baggett, Shelly Barnhart, Sherri Becker, Margaret Cory, Carolyn Cramer,

Local students in BAC drafting contest

Approximately 40 students from nine high schools participated in the Illinois Technical Drafting Teachers Association contest March 12 at Belleville area college.

John Jacobs, BAC drafting instructor, served as director for the contest, which was held at the college for the second year in a row.

Winners included students from Belleville Township High School West, Collinsville High School, Granite City High School North, Granite City High School South and Collinsville Area Vocational Center.

Other participating high schools were Assumption of East St. Louis, Madison, Edwardsville and East Alton-Wood River.

Winners were named in three categories — introductory drafting, machine drafting and architectural drafting.

Introductory drafting winners included Belleville

Township High School West students Wayne Martin, Michael Staub and Gordon Teel.

Thomas J. Mottin of Collinsville High School was first in machine drafting, Gerald Duane Hasselbrock of GCHS North was second, and Christie Peterson of GCHS South was third.

Collinsville Area Vocational Center students Todd E. Shaak and Tim Krumm took first and second place in

TRAFFIC CHARGES, WARRANT SERVED

Halted at 19th Street and Delmar Avenue last week, Ronald E. Miller, 18, of 2510 W. 24th St., was charged with not having a valid driver's license nor a valid registration.

It was learned an outstanding warrant also was on file against Miller, alleging failure to appear in court on a theft charge.

Cleanup campaign planning begins

A clean-up campaign from Venice to the outskirts of Mitchell and Pontoon Beach will begin April 16 with 800 Girl Scouts, 500 Boy Scouts and Sunbeams and Girl Guides from the Salvation Army collecting debris in an effort to beautify the Quad-City area.

The project, under the auspices of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, is planned in conjunction with the national observance, "Keep America Beautiful Week," scheduled for April 17 to April 23.

General Chairman Ray Edwards is coordinating committee chairman for the annual event, which also will include senior citizens. They are being asked to notify their neighbors of the clean-up campaign and give instructions for bagging extra trash for the pick-up.

Instructions and firm dates for the collection of trash and boxed items in the individual cities will be announced at a later date, the chairman noted.

Each youth participating in the program will be given a badge to wear designating that he or she is a member of the clean-up team. Free soft drinks will be provided by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. and orange juice and coffee will be furnished by McDonald's Restaurant.

Rep. Wolf on state insurance committee

State Representative Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) has been appointed to the Illinois Insurance Laws Study Commission by Speaker Michael Madigan.

One of the commissions in which he is particularly interested because of his insurance background is the Insurance Laws Study Commission, Wolf said, noting that he has served on the Illinois House Insurance Committee for two terms.

The membership of the commission consists entirely of members of the Illinois House and Senate, with a total membership of 10. Five are appointed from the Senate by the Senate president and Senate minority leader and five are appointed from the House by the speaker of the House and the House minority leader. Due to redistricting and the curbs of the Illinois House from 177 members to 118 members, vacancies occurred on the Insurance Laws Study Commission, which enabled the Wolf appointment.

Wolf indicated that the principal functions of the commission are to study all aspects of insurance in the state of Illinois and to consider whether the current laws relating to insurance are adequate; consider all aspects of Illinois insurance law and the insurance industry in Illinois that the commission deems desirable, and consider the relationship between health care regulators, health care providers, insurance companies and the effect of their policies on insurance rates. Periodic reports are required to be made by the commission to the General Assembly, in accordance with the law under which it is constituted.

The commission currently is researching the merits of mandatory automobile insurance, having recently concluded a series of meetings with the Motor Vehicle Laws Commission on this subject. Hearings on this issue will continue throughout the state.

MADISON WOMAN CHARGED IN GC

Receiving a call that a woman was kicking a plate glass window at Stefanie's Shop, 1322 Nineteenth St., in the early morning hours last week, a woman at the scene, matching the description given police, was arrested. Charged with disorderly conduct was Trudy E. Dunnivant, 26, of 1228 Beckwith Ave., Madison, who initially gave officers the name, Sherrel E. Jones, and a Granite City address. She was released later the same day after posting a $52 cash bond.

Footprints were found on the window, which did not appear to be otherwise damaged, reports said.

Two Texans can see again due to eye bank

The Lions Eye Bank, although in existence only two months, has already extended its influence as far away as El Paso, Texas, and two Texans have their sight restored thanks to the eye bank.

The bank, sponsored by the Lions clubs of Districts 26A-1 and 26A-2, recently was called upon by the family of a 59-year-old patient who died in Belleville Memorial Hospital. The patient had earlier completed one of the eye bank's donor cards.

Joy Barr, registered nurse, harvested the donor's eyes, assisted by Linda Morillo, R.N., both nurses of the Saint Louis Eye Hospital who volunteer their time, along with others, for eye harvesting. Dr. Flavius P. Perout III, medical director of the eye bank, observed the procedure.

It was late on a Friday afternoon and a search began for recipients who could use the corneas.

Check for girl leads to arrests

Officers checking the whereabouts of an alleged runaway girl went to a house in the 2100 block of Lee Avenue last week and were admitted by the occupant.

The girl was asked to accompany officers and a man at the dwelling, when requested to show proof of his identity, produced a social security card and an immigration card.

Enroute to police headquarters, officers learned an outstanding warrant was active against Jose Tostado, 27, of 2154 Lee Ave., the man whose identity had been checked, and officers returned to that address, but learned Tostado had left.

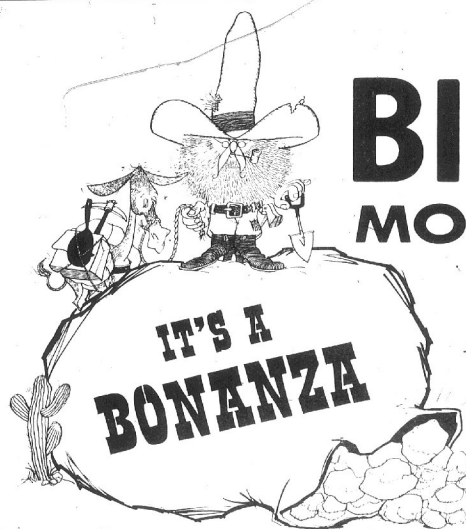

A short time later, a neighbor called police to report a man was running down an alley and had entered a house. Officers then went to 2142 Lee Ave., where Gary Dacus, 24, allegedly advised that no one had entered the dwelling.

After the arrest warrant for Tostado was produced, Dacus allowed police to enter and Tostado was found hiding in a front room closet and was served with a warrant alleging failure to appear on a traffic violation.

Dacus was charged with disorderly conduct and was released about an hour later upon posting a $52 cash bond.

We need to think of the children

We find it appalling that some of Granite City's finest teachers and coaches are being "honorably dismissed" while others who have less of an impression on the lives of our students are retained, simply because of seniority.

However, we realize the Granite City Board of Education had no choice, unless they were willing to go to jail for violating state statutes.

We are told the state statutes demand dismissals of those with less seniority before those with more years in a district. There are two schools of thought on that.

Some teachers contend that without the seniority laws, Illinois board members would simply keep their friends and get rid of the others. The districts would be packed with teachers who are friends and relatives of school board members and administrators while conscientious, hard-working teachers are dismissed.

There may be some merit to the argument. However, we feel that is putting too little faith in the school board and the voters who elect them. We believe that most board members feel strongly that the most important part of their job is seeing that the students receive as rewarding an education as possible.

That is not done by firing the two soccer coaches, one named national high school coach of the year last year. That is not done by dismissing a high school vocal teacher who has given her students more than just her free time, but her heart and guidance.

There are many, many fine teachers losing their jobs simply because they have not been here long enough. We believe the seniority rule works well in assembly lines and factories, but is counter productive when it comes to determining who can best teach our children.

Although it is bound to draw criticism from teachers' unions, we believe the state should re-evaluate its laws.

We believe the system should be that the voters elect the school board, the school board selects the administrators and the administrators put their best people to work teaching the children. If the system breaks down, appropriate measures should be taken or the school board should answer only to the voters, not to a state statute.

It's too late this time, but should not be allowed to happen again.

Bringing sanity to gas pricing

U.S. Senators Alan J. Dixon and Charles Percy are heading the outcry from newspapers and voters in Illinois and can expect a great deal of support from "back home" in their attempts to bring some sanity back to the pricing of natural gas.

Both are supporting a bill aimed at reducing natural gas by as much as 25 percent and breaking contracts between utilities, gas pipeline companies and countries importing expensive liquefied natural gas (LNG) when cheaper domestic gas is plentiful.

Even the Illinois Commerce Commission is backing the bill, which will be presented in Congress after the Easter recess.

This country was made great using the law of supply and demand. When the supply is plentiful, the price should drop. As the Press-Record has said before, the current natural gas situation is insane and should be changed.

Many senior citizens and persons on fixed incomes are having to make the choice, "heat or eat." It is far too important a matter to get lost in a congressional shuffle. The bill should be evaluated and passed quickly.

Teamsters should clean house

Once again, we find that the nation's largest labor union is about to be run by a convicted felon from his jail cell.

Teamsters President Roy L. Williams, 68, has been sentenced to serve 55 years in federal prison, but has been told he may continue to head "one of the most powerful organizations in the free world."

Sources indicate the sentence may be significantly reduced due to Williams' poor health (he suffers from emphysema), but that should not change the basic idea that a felon convicted of participating in a conspiracy to bribe former U.S. Senator Howard Cannon is likely to run the giant Teamsters Union from a jail cell, while collecting his $225,000-a-year salary.

We cannot understand how the hard-working over-the-road drivers and the many other Teamsters continue to allow the constant shadow of crime to hang over the union which controls their hard-earned pension funds.

Questions Madison police car expenditures

To the Editor:

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk and his aldermen are always trying to tell us how much they are doing for the city and how much money they are saving the taxpayer.

I would like to know why all the gasoline purchased by the police department is purchased at the Golden Shell Station on Sixth Street and Madison Avenue, owned, in part, at least, by Jerry Maeras?

We also have in Madison a Kerr-McGee Station at 425 McCambridge, Oscar's 66 Station at 1200 State St., and a Standard Station at 520 Madison Ave.

Until Mayor Sasyk stopped the practice, each Madison filling station received part of the business. My question, if the mayor will answer, is why only the Shell Station gets the gasoline business?

Are all the other three station owners politically against the city administration?

Also in Madison we have a car wash. At this car wash, I have seen the Illinois State Police, the Madison County Sheriff's Department, Secretary of State cars and Venice police cars being washed.

My question, Mayor Sasyk, is why do the taxpayers of Madison pay for the additional cost of Madison Police cars driving all the way to Granite City, which is out of their jurisdiction, to be washed at a car wash that charges more than the Madison car wash?

This leaves our city with one less patrol car on the streets when it is evident to everyone that there are not enough police officers as it is?

Is it that the owner of the Madison car wash has been, and is, an opponent of the city organization? Why do we, the taxpayers of Madison, in these very hard economic times, have to endure this additional cost?

I have known Mr. Miller for more than 20 years and I believe his election as alderman will be of benefit to both the Fourth Ward and our community as a whole. Here is one example of Phil's efforts for the betterment of our community.

Objects to GC Housing rent being increased

To the Editor:

I would like to know why our Housing Authority doesn't care about the people living there.

It is bad enough your laid off bills are already too much. Who makes up such ignorant decisions?

I don't know who, but I don't like it. Thirty percent of my income (for rent) is too much. I might as well just not work.

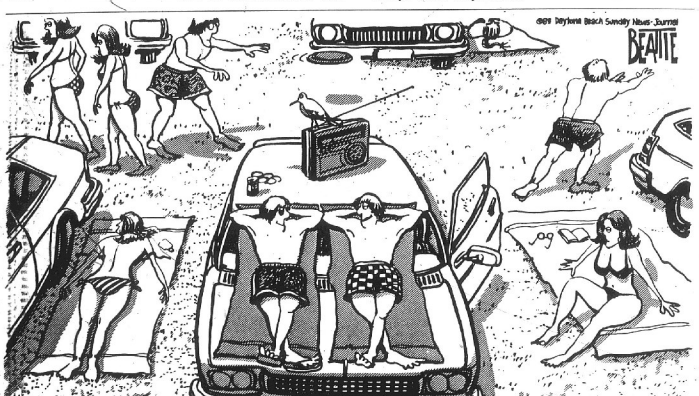

You people should try and live on unemployment and state aid. There are politicians at work again, making the poor pay. The answers I get from Housing and people who should know what's going on make me sick.

I hope some of you read this because I don't like the increase and I'm a voter and veteran. I'm being forced to pay rent that is too high and unfair.

Supports Miller's candidacy in Granite City's 4th Ward

To the Editor:

This letter is written in support of Philip K. Miller's candidacy for alderman of the Fourth Ward.

I have known Mr. Miller for more than 20 years and I believe his election as alderman will be of benefit to both the Fourth Ward and our community as a whole. Here is one example of Phil's efforts for the betterment of our community.

When it was first learned by the residents of Lueders

Park that the Granite City South Boosters Club was planning to install advertising signs on the school fence around the soccer and baseball field complex on Fehling Road in order to raise money for lighting the complex, Phil was one of many residents in Lueders Park who became concerned about this action. There was no objection to the lighting of the complex; but, there were many reasons for concern by the residents of Lueders Park about the signs. The primary ones were traffic safety, property values and the beauty of our neighborhood.

I know a lot of people did a lot of work to prevent the signs from going up, but Phil was one of the hardest workers in this matter. It was he, along with some other residents of our neighborhood who took the time to ring the doorbells, inform the people of the situation and get the signatures on the petition that was presented to the school board, whose members realized the mistake that had been made and rescinded their permission to install the advertising signs.

Phil, however, did not stop there. After permission to install the signs had been rescinded, a committee was formed to develop other means of financing the lighting of the complex. He, along with some other residents of Lueders Park, members of the Boosters, school board and administrators from South, served on that committee. Everyone can see the results of that committee's work. We have one of the most beautiful and functional complexes in the state of Illinois.

What's the point of all this? I sincerely believe Phil Miller will serve of the city council with the same dedication and enthusiasm to make our community a better place to live and raise our families as he did in the matter related above.

Says Mick Strange has benefited Madison

To the Editor:

In the March 17 issue of the Press-Record, Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk said a concerned citizen (Walter F. "Mick" Strange) should do something for the community, instead of just criticizing the Sasyk administration.

I would like to take this time to refresh the community of some of the projects that Mick Strange has already instituted in the community. Prior to Mr. Strange going to work for the Press-Record it seems the only news items that were printed were items such as a tragedy or someone from Madison being arrested. After Mick was employed, he took special interest in covering items such as activities in the school district and anything else that a resident of Madison may ask him to cover.

A second personal interest that Mick took was the Boys Scouts of America. Mick not only is on the executive board, but is also the person responsible for the creation of Explorer Post "10-4" of Madison. Mick not only is the founder of Post "10-4," but he is the primary driving force that has caused this organization to be in existence for the last 14 years.

Achievements and recognition have been a standard with this organization since its inception and the credit due belongs to Mick Strange for putting Madison, Illinois, on the map. Through Mick's leadership, Post "10-4" is known as one of the leading law enforcement explorer programs in our great country. Mick has volunteered his time and his own money to see his dream come true, and show me someone else in Madison or your administration that has been dedicated to a volunteer cause for the last 14 years as Mick Strange has, because I would like to shake his hand.

As many might not know, Mick doesn't stand in line for thanks and gratitude, as some have, because his satisfaction comes from helping the youth of the Tri-Cities.

I don't know too many people that would give up their personal vacation to go with Explorers on their various activities, nor would I want to try to estimate a dollar value for this time that he has volunteered to the youth in the Tri-Cities, and particularly Madison.

It is often hard to find a man of Mick Strange's caliber who is willing to make personal sacrifices to help a youth program succeed in a community, when you consider Mick doesn't even have any children or relatives participating in the program.

Mick has spent tireless hours throughout the years for the youth cause and he should be rewarded with the key to the city of Madison and a banquet in his honor for a job well done! Congratulations Mick, and continued success in your endeavors, as it appears you are really a concerned citizen of Madison.

Leads to jail term

A Granite City man was sentenced to serve 30 days in the Madison County Jail for driving while his license was suspended when Venice police arrested him Thursday at 12:15 a.m.

Kenneth L. Risky, 56, of 2606 W. 20th St., also was charged with driving while under the influence (DUI) of alcohol and driving on the wrong side of the roadway.

Venice police said they observed Risky driving south in the northbound lane of Route 20 and saw him stop at the Niedringhaus Avenue stoplights. When asked what he was doing, Risky told police he was waiting for the lights to change, reports said.

When asked for his driver's license, police allege that Risky said he did not have one. He was then arrested and taken to the county headquarters, where he allegedly refused to take a breath test.

Water slide plan up for vote

By GEORGEANN MCGEE

Venice Park District residents will be asked to vote April 12 on a $200,000 bond issue referendum that sponsors believe will result in a revenue-producing water recreation area for Lee Park.

The two candidates running for the district's single six-year opening though are sharply divided on the value of the project.

Park commissioners voted last January to include the special proposition on the upcoming ballot that, if approved, would allow the district to issue construction bonds for a water slide, combination bath house and concession building and adult bumper boat area.

Those funds also would be used to rehabilitate the tennis courts, playground area and ballpark diamond and to defray the cost of a general upgrading of the park.

The project will bring some jobs to the area, while providing the city with its only major summer recreation, according to the Rev. John Henry Williams, board president. "If the young adults don't have something to do, there's going to be more crime."

The bonds would cost tax-

The P-R suggests
VOTE
April 12

payers 15 cents per $100 assessed property value

according to park board estimates. The taxpayers would notice only about a five-cent per $100 increase, however, since they would be losing 10 cents per $100 tax used to finance bonds for the Venice Recreation Center.

"It will be a trade off," Board Treasurer James Harrell said.

According to park commissioners backing the project, the water recreation bonds would cost $11.24 a year for a taxpayer owning a $22,500 house that has an assessed value of $7,500. Of that sum, the homeowner had previously been paying $7.50 to complete payments for the recreation center and would notice only a $3.75 cent tax hike per year.

Park board candidate Thomas Scaturro, Venice superintendent of streets, however, does not find much of a bargain in those figures. "I think it's going to be a burden on the senior citizen taxpayers," he said. "I don't think they can afford the taxes with the way the economy is today."

Instead, Scaturro would like to see the park district improve the facilities now available. "There's a lot to improve," the candidate stated.

He also doubts that the venture will ever be a profitable one and could possibly be a financial drain. "They (water slides) are just a fact he said. He asked how the water slide could be maintained if interest fades and revenues drop accordingly."

In addition, Scaturro does not agree with the projected $20 million assessed evaluation of the district's total worth on which the tax increases are based. He estimates a higher cost to the taxpayer for the bonds. The park board treasurer defends the projected evaluation, which he said is based on a current figure now near $18 million with an increase added for inflation.

Incumbent Earl Hogan, facing Scaturro in the election, is a staunch supporter of the water recreation area. Hogan compares a vote for the park bond issue to a vote for park district "redevelopment." "Revenue from the water slide will not only pay for its upkeep, but also other park recreation as well," he said.

Other businesses surrounding the park could benefit from the flow of adults and children to the water recreation area, Hogan said. About 30,000 users annually have been estimated, according to a report presented to the park board by Art Fiascone, sales consultant for Recreational Water Slide Systems, Clarendon Hills, Ill.

Hogan's echidna Rev. Williams in his belief that the recreation area would help prevent problems situations. "More teenagers and children will play in the park. They'll be less worry about them in the streets."

He estimates about 12 to 13 part-time summer jobs will be made available to young people in the district.

According to consultant Fiascone, for the proposed recreation area to succeed, certain steps would have to be followed. Those include a regular thorough cleaning of the park area, stepped up security to insure the proper conduct and behavior of park visitors, and increased use of artificial lighting to elevate the feeling of visitor safety.

Besides the estimated $85,000 for the slide, other costs would be $35,000 for the multi-purpose concessions and bath house building, $15,000 to $25,000 for the adult bumper boat water area, and $50,000 for other park improvements.

According to Fiascone, the key to attracting 30,000 visitors annually would be low ride charges of about $1.50 to $2 per person, in comparison to privately-operated rides with higher rates. He told commissioners they could estimate a gross annual revenue of $45,000 for the water slide.

Other revenue would be possible through the installation of video arcade games and coin-operated lockers in the bath house, he stated. The company projected the bumper boats could produce $11,250 in revenues and food concessions could bring in an additional $15,000 a year in revenues.

Alleges men display knives

Two Pontoon Beach men who had been arguing with a third man and allegedly displayed knives were arrested at 8:30 p.m. Friday at the 19th Hole Tavern, 2401 Washington Ave.

Husband, wife, past employee challenge

The Granite City Park District April 12 race will present voters a choice of incumbent board members, past employees and a husband and wife team, who have been upset by a past board ruling.

Voters must select two commissioners to serve six-year terms from a field of five candidates, and will select one candidate to serve the remaining two-year term of past Commissioner David Nolan, the district's present director of parks and recreation.

The two incumbents, Barry Loman and John "Jeff" Worthen, have served on the board 32 years and six years respectively.

Loman, 68, of 36 Janday Lane, served as board president for 10 years and also vice president of the Granite City Park District Board of Commissioners. He currently is chairman of the board's Municipal Relations Committee.

The incumbent stated he is seeking another term in office "to provide our area with good recreation programs and facilities for all age groups and to endeavor to live within the budget annually."

Loman, a lifelong resident, is a bank officer for the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank. He is a graduate of Granite City High School and attended the American Institute of Banking and the Illinois School of Banking. He is past president of the Madison-Bond County Bank and Federation and past president of the Bank Administration Institute.

He was general chairman of the city's festival commemorating its 75th Anniversary.

Loman has served on the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Lincoln Athletic Club Board of Directors. He holds membership in the Granite City Optimist Club.

He is a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Loman and his wife, Marie, have three children and four grandchildren.

Worthen, 28, of 3318 Franklin Ave., was elected to his first term on the board in 1977. He is vice president of the board and chairman of its Finance Committee. "I'm proud to say we are still in the black financially," he says.

As finance chairman, Worthen helped secure grant funds to construct new concession stands, shelters and playgrounds and to rehabilitate park facilities and other developments.

The board also directed the rehabilitation of the sunken gardens, Lincoln Park Community Center and the rink.

Worthen stated that during his six years in office, several new programs have been added, including fast pitch softball, basketball, indoor soccer and various senior citizens activities.

The candidate is a lifelong resident of the city. He is the grandson of William Worthen, who served on the first park district board and reminded a member for 32 years.

The incumbent is a graduate of the Granite City school system. He attended Peru State College, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Belleville Area College, taking course in business and construction management.

He is employed as a bricklayer for the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp.

Worthen holds the office of Precinct 23 commissioner. He is a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and is a Third Degree member of the Knights of Columbus.

He and his wife, the former Cynthia Brooks, have a son and daughter.

Challenger Gary L. Granddier, 28, of 1800 Primrose Ave., was the park district's recreation director from June 1977 to April 1979.

He gave as his reasons and objectives for seeking office his educational background in recreation and his work experience in the parks and recreation field, particularly in the Granite City area.

"I can offer both new ideas and a working knowledge of the operations of the park district," according to Mrs. Granddier. The candidate holds a bachelor's degree in recreation administration from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He is a graduate of Mount Olive Community High School.

Granddier currently works in the Personnel Department of McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Division. Prior to that, he was recreation representative to McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Division.

He is a member of the Granite City Athletic Club and the Alumni Association of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He is a past member of the Southern Illinois Parks and Recreation Association.

Granddier, a native of Littlefield, has been a resident of the area six years. He is a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Mount Olive.

He is married to Cindy Adams Granddier.

Also seeking six-year commissioner terms are husband and wife, Jerry M. Bristol and Augustia M. Bristol, 3000 Myrtle Ave.

Mrs. Bristol, 37, said the idea to seek a board seat was first her husband's thought, but later they decided more could be accomplished if from there were two members supporting changes, rather than one.

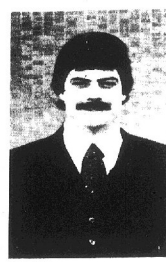

Mrs. Bristol also thinks that the park district, with its all-male board, needs a women member, in view of the district's large sports program for women.

"I feel that there needs to be some new blood included in the park board," according to Mrs. Bristol. "I also feel that it would be most appropriate to have a women's point of view on the board, considering the number of women now participating in park sports."

The candidate currently is a cosmetology student at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture. She is a 1964 graduate of Granite City Senior High School.

She is a member of Faith Baptist Church.

Her husband, Jerry Bristol, 43, said he was motivated to run by his

Two run for single two-year position

An appointed Granite City Park District board commissioner, Richard Reinhardt, and a former park district employee, Nancy L. Sanders, will be on the April 12 ballot both seeking a single two-year board term.

The two-year term represents the remainder of the position originally won by David Nolan, now director of parks and recreation. The seat has since been held by Walter Milton, who subsequently became a Granite City alderman, and then, Reinhardt, appointed in March, 1982.

Reinhardt, 35, of 111 Briarhaven Lane, ran unsuccessfully for a spot on the park board in 1975, 1977 and, again, in 1979.

He is currently chairman of the district Engineering Committee.

"The Granite City Park District has always been one of the best managed, most efficient and most cost-effective recreation programs in the area," he said. "Our young people need a wide range of recreational programs."

Miss Sanders stated she decided to seek this position, because "I feel more young adults should be involved in community activities and share in our civic responsibilities."

She assisted the district this year in its annual Easter egg hunt.

Miss Sanders received a bachelor's degree in education from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. She is enrolled in the SIUE graduate school of business administration.

She currently is employed as an administrative assistant at the St. Louis Area Support Center (Granite City Army Depot). She previously was a service group leader for the Center Bank, St. Louis, and an adult services at the Granite City Public Library.

Miss Sanders is a member of the Professional Services of America and the Granite City Public Library Friends of the Library. She was a member of the Modern Music Masters and a Girl Scout leader.

She is a member of St. John's Baptist Church, where she is a Sunday School teacher, a Mission Friends instructor, assistant Aetna leader and member of Rebekah's Daughters.

Miss Sanders is a native of Granite City.

Reinhardt attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and received his doctor of chiropractic degree in 1973 from Logan College of Chiropractic, Chesterfield, Mo. He conducted his post-graduate studies at the National College of Chiropractic, Lombard, Ill.

He is a member of the National College of Chiropractic, Lombard, Ill.

Reinhardt operated the Reinhardt Chiropractic Center, 20 Crossroads Plaza, for 12 years, while attending chiropractic college.

During that period, he was employed at various times as a park policeman, assistant rink manager, pool manager and recreation supervisor of the Namekoi Recreation Center. His father, Dr. Milton Reinhardt, is an employee of the district's Maintenance Department.

Burglar flees filtering plant

Checking an upstairs floor at the Illinois American filtering plant at West 23rd Street and Logan Avenue last week, an employee noticed a chain broken on a door.

Employee Jim Burgess went outside to inspect the filtering plant and saw an electric cord moving on the ground and a man bent down next to the basins. The man was holding a set of oxygen gauges, a hose and a welding torch.

Seeing he had been spotted, the man started running, but fell down and dropped a knife and a padlock on the ground. He continued to run, chased by Burgess, and climbed a fence on the south side of the building, running toward the 2300 block of Logan Avenue.

The gauges and welding torch had been taken from a second floor maintenance room, where an inventory was to be conducted to determine if other items were missing.

A headpiece radio was found on the ground near the knife and padlock.

The intruder appeared to be about 17 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, and weighed about 140 pounds. He had dark brown hair, covering the ears, and he was wearing a blue jean jacket and faded jeans.

ON DEAN'S LIST IN INDIANA

Amy D. Karmages, a University of Evansville (Ind.) student at Granite City, was among 580 UE students named to the Dean's List for outstanding academic achievement during the winter quarter.

To attain the Dean's List, a student must have earned a 3.5 or better grade point average for the quarter while carrying 12 or more hours of credit.

Miss Karmages, daughter of Mrs. Diane Karmages, of 2337 Cleveland Blvd., has been named to the Dean's List for the first time.

you can BANK on it

Q: Have you heard about the recent federal government's requirement which will make holders of IRAs responsible for withholding tax on interest and dividends on customer's accounts?

A: That requirement will become effective on July 1, 1983, unless repealed. Currently, there are some 54 bills before the U.S. Congress, all asking repeal of the measure. The measure is, of course, an effort by the Internal Revenue Service to increase tax revenues by minimizing tax evasion, and speeding up tax collection. This would indicate an IRS attitude that Americans do not, as a rule, comply with the law requiring reporting of interest and dividend income on federal tax forms. The 1981 report on tax returns for the years 1975 and 1976 states compliance in reporting dividend and interest income was 96.7% for the tax years studied. (The IRS estimates only 86% compliance.) The bills for repeal indicate not too many people are in favor of the measure. The important question, however, is how do YOU, the depositor, feel about it? We can only suggest, whatever your feelings, you communicate them directly to your Congressman.

National awards to North speech, drama students

Three students of speech and drama at Granite City High School North have been named 1983 United States National Award Winners by the United States Achievement Academy.

The winners are Susan Beasley, Ronald Eberhart and Kimberly Smith.

Miss Beasley is the daughter of Glen and Willetta Beasley and the granddaughter of Mrs. Alene Reagan and Mrs. Hazel Beasley, all of Granite City.

Eberhart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Eberhart and the grandson of Mrs. Ann Eberhart of Granite City and Mrs. Laura Donaldson of Vandallia.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry H. Smith and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips of Granite City.

All three will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally. The academy selects winners based on the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the standards of selection established by the academy.

Dr. Goni Michaeloff, chairman of the speech department at North, nominated the three.

Criteria for selection include the students' academic performance, interest, aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm as members of the school, and recommendation by a school official.

The award ceremony will be held at the Washington Ballroom, Granite City, and is open to the public.

Dinner reservations, costing $12.50 per person, are now being accepted at the Urban League's main office at 210 William St., Alton, at the league's satellite offices, or by calling 1-463-1906.

UGLY BARTENDER CONTEST UNDERWAY

Have you ever heard of a contest that had no losers and where the judges were encouraged to stuff the ballot boxes? If not, then you have never heard of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's "Ugliest Bartender Contest."

The contest to aid Multiple Sclerosis runs through April 18 throughout eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois to raise money.

In this "beauty contest in reverse," the judges are the bartenders' own patrons, with each barkeep receiving one vote for every 25-cent he collects. The bartenders with the most votes at the end of the contest will win, in addition to the dubious Ugly Crown, an expense-paid vacation for two to Orlando, Fla., courtesy of Ozark Airlines.

There also will be many additional prizes awarded to the bartenders as they reach the different plateaus of ugliness.

Bill would end annual written driving test for state's seniors

State Representative Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) has announced that the Illinois House of Representatives has approved legislation to end the annual written driving test for seniors.

"No other state discriminates against seniors by requiring them to take an annual written exam to keep their driver's license," Wolf said. "The bill puts seniors back on the same level as drivers of any other age."

House Bill 350 allows the Secretary of State only to test the eyesight of a driver or to perform a driving demonstration, if needed.

"One of the greatest travesties for many seniors is having to take a written test each year to prove their knowledge of traffic laws,"

Rep. Wolf said. "If a senior has been driving for years and has not been ticketed for any moving violations or been involved in any accidents, he or she doesn't have to take a written test to prove they are a safe driver. Their driving record proves that."

"The annual written test is unnecessary and will be eliminated when the bill becomes law," Wolf said.

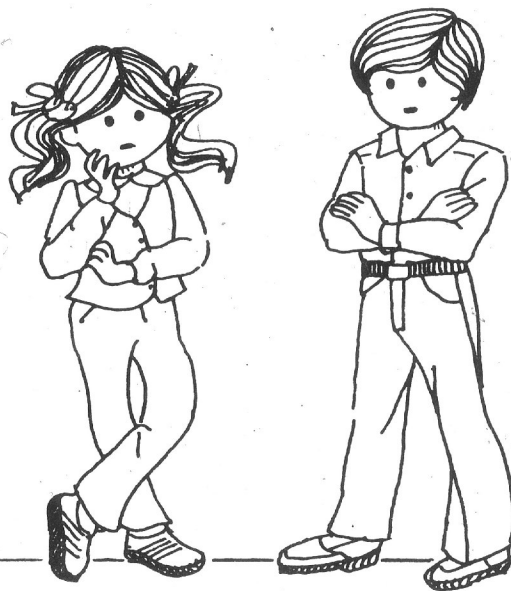

The bill is now in the Senate Transportation Committee awaiting action.

Edwardsville beats North by walks and Vieth's HR

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — With one swing of the bat, Edwardsville catcher Dave Vieth destroyed any hopes of Granite City North upsetting the undefeated Tigers.

Vieth hit a three-run homer over the cozy 271 foot left field fence at Edwardsville's LeClaire field in the fifth inning to set the stage for the Tigers' 10-2 romp over the Steelers Thursday in the GEC baseball opener for North.

The Steelers were very much in the game before Vieth's home run. At the start of the fifth inning North was ahead 2-1. Just before the home run, the Tiger's Todd Hansel hit a single to drive in the tying run. If North relief pitcher Jim Burton had been able to get Vieth out, the score would still have been 2-2 and North would have been still in the game.

However, Vieth hit Burton's fast ball over the high but short fence in left field to give Edwardsville a 5-2 lead. North was never the same after the home run. "After the home run they (the Steelers) weren't able to get anything going and they started making a lot of mistakes," Edwardsville coach Tom Pyle.

North Coach Bob Stegemeier saw things a bit differently. "The walks we gave up killed us. We let the people in the bottom of the line-up get on base so the big hitters could get them in," he said.

Prior to Vieth's blast, Edwardsville was making the errors—both physical and mental. The mistakes aided North to overcome the Tigers' 1-2 lead in the fourth inning.

North's Brian Levin led off the inning with a single, and Steve Trittschuh followed him with a single. However, Trittschuh's single was bobbled by right fielder Steve Drda, and the runners advanced to second and third.

After Daren DeFew popped out, Nor-

Granite North Steelers

th's Rod Hessler hit a shot which went through the legs of first baseman David Lange, allowing both Levin and Trittschuh to score.

Sam Tate, North's starting pitcher was working well through the fifth inning. After getting the first out in the inning, Tate walked both Tim Blythe and Kevin King. Tate exited the game after the walks.

Burton started his stint strong by striking out Brian Paddock, but Hansel's single and Vieth's home run sealed the fate of the Steelers.

Greg Levin took over the pitching duties at the start of the sixth inning, but he was unable to get any of the six batters he faced out while four runs scored. Dan Whitsell was called in to finish the job, but the Tigers added another run before Whitsell got the Steelers out of the inning.

"Same pitcher pretty well for us for four innings, but we had to go to the bullpen, and they couldn't get the job done," Stegemeier said. "We haven't start hitting the ball like we should, and our pitching is still questionable."

"We've had some good performances, and we've had some bad ones too. Edwardsville is a good hitting ball club, but it's still a long season, and I think we should get better," Stegemeier said.

So far, Pyle has been impressed with what he has seen from the Tigers. Last season, Edwardsville opened the year with a 4-16 record before turning its season around and qualifying for the state finals.

The Tigers have received strong pitching this year, and Kevin Burns, who went 5-2-3 innings against the Steelers for the win, increased his record to 3-4.

Burns took himself out of the game when he felt pain in his pitching arm, just shortly before Pyle was going to take him out.

Despite Edwardsville's record so far, Pyle is a realist. He knows the Tigers won't win all of their games, but he knows they won't lose very many either.

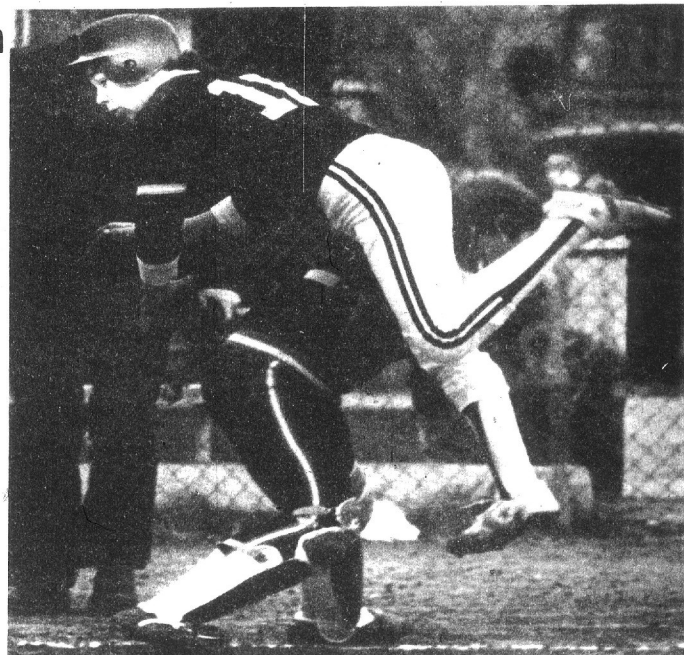

"We're just going to try to win every game. We're much better than we were at this point of the season last year, and I expect us to get better," Pyle said.

Stegemeier said, "I think Edwardsville and Althoff will be the teams to beat in the conference, and Cahokia and South are always hard to beat. This race is far from over."

The Steelers and Tigers are set to meet again Thursday, this time at Granite City North. However, it is questionable whether the game will be played because of the weather forecast for the week.

"I'm sure we'll be playing them later in the season because of the weather we're predicted to have this week," Stegemeier said. "I know we're going to get better as the season progresses."

North, now 1-2 overall and 0-1 in the GEC, will entertain Hillsboro, the Class A runner-up to New Lenox-Providence last season, Tuesday at 4 p.m. and Wood River on Wednesday, also at 4 p.m.

WHOOO! Kevin Patterson of the Granite City North Steelers tries to leap to avoid the tag of Edwardsville catcher Dave Vieth. However, the leap was to no avail as the throw from Edwardsville center fielder Greg Colligan was on target, and Patterson was easily tagged out at the plate.

Rutkowski Construction's under 16 soccer team knew they were going to have a rough time winning the Busch Gardens Youth Invitational soccer tournament, but no one, including Rutkowski coach Bill Drum, expected the tournament to be as tough as it was.

Rains on Friday forced the start of the tournament to be postponed until Saturday, meaning Rutkowski would have to play three games on Saturday.

The field was sloppy during Rutkowski's first game with the Russell Select team and got progressively worse during the day. Some of the girls' mother washed the uniforms before the second game, but seeing washing would be futile, Rutkowski played its third game in dirty uniforms.

Rutkowski finished second in its division to the Cincinnati, Ohio, Cardinals, but Rutkowski didn't lose a game during the tournament.

Pope invites/teens

Three St. Elizabeth Catholic Church youths will take part in the first "Teen Encounter Christ (TEC) Weekend" to be held in Rome, April 9 to 11.

Pope John Paul II invited this country's TEC organization to present the retreat for high school juniors and seniors.

Granite City High School North students who will participate are Amy Patterson, Michelle Sikora and Ken Shambro. They will be part of 14 adults and youths leaving from this area for the retreat.

They will be joined in Rome, Italy, by other TEC members from Missouri and Nebraska.

Joins Crisis Services staff

Howard Webb has joined the staff of Crisis Services of Madison County, a cooperative service of Madison County Mental Health Center and the Mental Health Services, Southern Madison County, Inc., as a crisis counselor.

He has a master's degree in Divinity from the Covenant Theological Seminary and previously served as a chaplain at Missouri Baptist Hospital.

While at the hospital, Webb worked in the psychiatric unit, counseled individuals in the intensive care unit and worked in the after hours on-call emergency room facilities.

The Crisis Services program, which is to begin operation in mid-April, hopes to combine after hours crisis services for the two area agencies involved in the cooperative effort, a spokesman advised.

The crisis numbers already established by the two mental health agencies will remain the same except that all calls will be forwarded to Crisis Services of Madison County, it was explained.

Further information about the new crisis program may be obtained by contacting Betty McMillan at the Mental Health Services Center, 2024 State St., Granite City, or by calling 877-1420.

RETURNS FROM TEXAS SEMINAR

Dr. L. A. Shipley, a local chiropractor, has returned from a four-day postgraduate seminar in Dallas, Texas. Dr. Shipley participated in discussions on chiropractic care of pregnant women, procedures for diagnosing and fulfilling the nutritional needs of patients and also impairment ratings for the expert chiropractic witness.

Featured guest speaker for this seminar was Ed Foreman, president of Executive Development Systems. Foreman, a full-time management consultant and a leader in the field of executive development, is a past presidential appointee who has worked closely with five U.S. presidents. He is the only person in this century to be elected to Congress from two states (Texas in 1962 and New Mexico in 1968.)

Two scholars to study SIUE weekend programs

Two scholars will visit Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Friday to offer ideas and suggestions on weekend offerings. They will focus on the report of the 1981-82 SIUE exchange team, which inquired into services and programs at other universities for non-traditional students — working adults, older citizens, adults changing careers, adults looking for personal enrichment and others.

At the invitation of Vice President and Provost Barbara Teters, James East, acting dean of the School of Liberal Arts and dean of the Weekend College at Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis, and Richard C. Pfaltz, associate professor of physiology, will be at SIUE on Friday.

In four sessions, the following concerns will be addressed: 9 a.m., Philosophy and rationale for weekend offerings (This session, directed at deans, directors, chairs and faculty, will meet in the Communications Building Theater); 10:30 a.m., Teaching adults and other traditional and non-traditional students in the weekend format (Communications Building Theater); 1 p.m., Student service needs of adults and other weekend learners. (This session, planned for all persons responsible for providing services to students, will be in the Communications Building Theater); and

2 p.m., Planning and facilitating weekend course/program offerings (This session, designed for deans, academic directors, faculty and selected administrators, will meet in the Maple Room of the University Center).

While each session has its specific focus, anyone is welcome to attend any or all of the meetings, according to Vice President Teters. Additional informational materials are available from deans, directors and chairmen. For further information, interested persons may call 1-692-3772.

sion, directed at deans, directors, chairs and faculty, will meet in the Communications Building Theater); 10:30 a.m., Teaching adults and other traditional and non-traditional students in the weekend format (Communications Building Theater); 1 p.m., Student service needs of adults and other weekend learners. (This session, planned for all persons responsible for providing services to students, will be in the Communications Building Theater); and 2 p.m., Planning and facilitating weekend course/program offerings (This session, designed for deans, academic directors, faculty and selected administrators, will meet in the Maple Room of the ## University Center)

While each session has its specific focus, anyone is welcome to attend any or all of the meetings, according to Vice President Teters. Additional informational materials are available from deans, directors and chairmen. For further information, interested persons may call 1-692-3772.

STEAL RINGS

Returning home last week, Jennie Burden, 1021 Grand Ave., Madison, found the front door standing open and a wedding band and engagement ring with three diamonds had been stolen. To get inside the apartment, the burglar apparently used a pickaxe to force the door, damaging the door and frame, reports said.

Gabriel Shrine installs 1983 corps of officers

A public installation was held last week at the Masonic Temple for the newly elected corps of officers of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem.

Silk rose floral arrangements decorated the chapter room using shades of pink, blue, silver and gold.

The ceremony began at 7:30 p.m. with the lighting of the candles by Mary Stuart and Delora Baker, followed by the introduction of past and present supreme officers, past worthy high priestess and past watchman of shepherds.

Ruth Harlowe, past supreme worthy high priestess, and special honored guest for the evening was introduced and escorted to the east for the remainder of the ceremonial.

The new corps of officers then entered the chapter room and were seated in white covered chairs forming a cross.

Evelyn Schlosser, accompanied by escorts Mary Arthur and Patricia Brenker, gave the Bible presentation. Opening prayer was offered by Mary Petrosian and Susan Norbury sang, "The Lords Prayer."

The presentation of the American flag was by Dale O'Beare, worshipful master of Triple Lodge 835 A.F. and A.M., escorted by Delora Baker and Mary Stuart and was followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the singing of "God Bless America."

Andrew McGlawn of Bay, Ark., grandson of the newly elected watchman of shepherds, gave the ode to the flag.

Bethel 43, Order of Jobs Daughters, presented the formation of the cross and sang, "Nearer My God To Thee." The nine o'clock interpolation was given by the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Ruth J. Cox was then installed as worthy high priestess by Dorothy Edwards, installing worthy high priestess. She was escorted to her station by her grandson, Mark Bowles. As they walked around the cross Susan Norbury sang, "Just A Closer Walk With Thee."

Lloyd S. Lewis took the oath of office of watchman of shepherds. As he was escorted to his station by his wife, Mary Ellen Lewis, the soloist sang, "Sentimental Journey."

After Noble Prophets, Dorothy R. Watkins and Associate Watchman of Shepherds, Jerome F. Pragnac, were inducted at their stations Mrs. Norbury sang, "Take My Hand Precious Lord."

Other elected officers installed were Karen E. Bronsman, worthy scribe; Chioe J. Simpson, worthy treasurer; Edna Brown, worthy chaplain; Dorothy Edwards, worthy shepherdess and Gladys R. Fuhrman, worthy secretary.

Appointive officers installed include Martha E. Pragnac, worthy herald; Charles A. Young, John Boyer and Ralph W. Baker, wisemen; Evelyn E. Nane, queen; Mary Ann DeHart and Mary Hoover, harem maids; Gyla Stuart, worthy organist; Banne DeBow, worthy guardian and Wendell Gritz, worthy guard.

Honorary appointive officers were Edith J. Smith, courier; Dorothy M. Brokaw, madonna; Lena E. Wood, banner bearer; Ellis N. Hackney Jr., American flag bearer; Cheryl Kay Streicher and Susan E. Thompson, American flag escorts; Nora F. Gibbons, Christian flag bearer; Effie M. Johnson, Christian flag escort and Earl French, stereotician.

Chioe J. Simpson, junior past worthy high priestess was presented her past officer jewel by Miss Sherry Hancock, queen of Bethel 43. The presentation of the past watchman of shepherds jewel was made to Ralph Baker by his wife, Delora Baker.

Mrs. Simpson presented Ruth Cox the traveling worthy high priestess pin. The worthy high priestess was also presented a gavel by the watchman of shepherds, a gift from him and his wife Mary Ellen.

As the newly installed worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds engaged in the ceremony of signing the Bible, all past worthy high priestess and past watchman of shepherds formed a circle and sang, "Best Be The Tie That Binds."

Other distinguished guests introduced were Dale

O'Beare, worshipful master of Triple Lodge 835 A.F. and A.M.; Sherry Hancock, queen of Bethel 43, Order of Jobs Daughters; Ellis Hackney, high priest of Royal Arch Masons in Granite City; Earl French, worthy patron of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star; and Mary Stuart, state president of the Illinois DeMolay Mothers Club.

As the new officers formed the cross in the retiring march, the benediction was given by Rev. Robert Widbin, minister of Bethel Evangelical Free Church.

Receiving officers for the evening were Chioe Simpson, Ralph W. Baker, Georgea Odom, and Karmy Edmonds.

Installing officers were Dorothy Edwards, Lloyd Lewis, Mary Ellen Lewis, Mary Petrosian, Betty Gritz, Georgia Odom, and Hulda Griffith. Escorts to the installing officers were Jerome F. Pragnac, Wendell Gritz, Lloyd Lewis, Earl French and John Schlosser. Donna Kagy presided over the guest book and Hannah Kleinschmidt distributed the programs.

Following the installation, refreshments were served in the dining room. Candelabra and floral arrangements decorated the serving table and colors of pink, blue, silver and gold were used in

Hemerocallis Society meets

The Southwestern Illinois Hemerocallis Society met last week at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, made plans for future activities and viewed a series of colored slides. Alvin LeBeque of Troy, president, was in charge of the business session and announced members of the area group are being invited to join the national society.

A financial report was read, and the purchase of a slide projector and screen was authorized.

Members voted to prepare a display for presentation at Alton Square on June 26 and it was agreed to bring companion plants for a plant sale at the next meeting, scheduled May 27 at the home of Nina Dix at Holiday Shores.

A gift plant was awarded to Rita Kinsella and another plant was won by Paul Freeman. Slides of daylilies followed.

The hostesses, Agnes Miller and Elsie LeBeque, served refreshments to Rosemary Newman, Gloria Vinton, Mr. and Mrs. Harley (Antoinette) Briscoe.

Virginia Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Orville (Lou) Diekhaut, Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Iva Dean) Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil (Dorothea) Kirksey and those previously mentioned.

District V Garden Clubs hold plant competition

The annual meeting of District V Garden Clubs of Illinois, Inc., was held at Central Christian Church, in Granite City, with The Gardenaires Garden Club as hostess club. After district director, Virginia Kaufhold, opened the meeting, Mrs. Pauline Schank, president of Gardenaires, the past three years, gave a welcome to the group. The response was given by Mrs. Dorothy Chamberlain, vice chairman of the district. Two guests were introduced, Mrs. Fran Koenen, state president for the past two years, and Mrs. Joan Kelly, newly elected state president.

All 15 clubs of the district were represented with 85 in attendance. As the roll call was conducted, the president or a representative from each club gave a report on their activities the past year, which covered a variety of projects in their communities. Reports were also given by the committee chairmen, and Mrs. Trish Haislar, Plant Illinois Chairman, reported that 197 trees, 360 shrubs, 461 roses and 2,610 bulbs had been planted during the year which represents a lot of beauty in the district.

A memorial service was given by Dorothy Chamberlain for the following deceased members: Eleanor Goehler, Cahokia; Marial Kertis and Pat Kosowski, Green Oaks; Cornelia Tisch, St. Clair County; and Mabel Thomas, Edwardsville.

The year books and history books for the year had been judged by Marian Nelson and her committee with blue ribbon for year books awarded to Cahokia, Cloverview, Collinsville, Creative Gardeners, Edwardsville, Fairview Heights, Gardenaires, Garden Study, Green Oaks, Holiday Shores, Lakeview, Mascoutah, St. Clair County, Shiloh Valley and Trenton Tumbleweeds. The books had been point scored and any score between 90 and 100 means a blue ribbon. The history books were judged in the same manner and blue ribbons for history books were awarded to Cahokia, Creative Gardeners, Gardenaires, Green Oaks, St. Clair and Trenton; red ribbons to Cloverview, Mascoutah and Shiloh. The year books are the plans for the year and the history books show how the plans are carried out.

For the artistic designs displayed, Collinsville received the blue ribbon, Mascoutah the red ribbon, Cahokia the yellow and St. Clair County the white for the class "Friendship Basket." In the other class "Sunshine and Shadows," Fairview Heights received a yellow ribbon. For the display of horticulture, the following awards were given: Ida Dunsing, two blue; Alice Schneider - one red; Mary Ellen Lindsey - four blue and two red; Helen DeChia - one blue and one red; Doris Hertenstein - one red; Esther Searis - one red; Norma Crenshaw - three blue; Marjorie Dintelman - one red; Clara Winter - two blue and one white; Janet Pegg - one red; Claudia Lentz - two blue; Lucille Klotz - one red; Dorothy McMullen - one blue; Elsie Mae Stiles - one yellow; Marge O'Neill - one red; Gladys Gandora - three blue, two red, two yellow and two white; Delores Kassy - one red; Katie Kostoff - one yellow; Jessie Frieberg - one white; Lucille Etheridge - one white.

Julie Heibeter, flower show chairman, reported a Christmas show "Our Christmas Heritage" is being planned the first week in December and it will be a one day show.

Fran Koenen, state president, installed the following officers using "happiness is as her theme: Maxine Mullen, Lakeview Garden Club as recording secretary and Jerry Thorp, Holiday Shores Garden Club as treasurer. The new historian, Helen Schmidt, Edwardsville Garden Club, was not present.

Richard Thom from the Forestry Division of the Illinois Conservation Department gave a program on "Forest Management," showing slides as he talked. Those who attended the Conservation Conference in 1980 had the pleasure of hearing Thom at that time. His talks are humorous, but very informative and never boring. The subject of his talk tied in with National Council's project this year "Planting Energy Trees." Everyone is being urged to plant an "energy tree" in conjunction with Arbor Day this year.

Fran Koenen and Joan Kelly gave talks on the state activities and extended an invitation to the Annual Convention in April. So far, 10 from the district are planning to attend.

Virginia Kaufhold presented her executive committee's beautiful variegated Impatiens plants and committee chairmen merigold plants.

DAR members attend state conference

Three members of the Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the DAR attended the 58th State Conference of the Illinois DAR recently in Peoria. They were Mrs. Barbara Williams, regent, Mrs. Emma Schoen, registrar, and Mrs. Janet Wilson, Good Citizens committee chairman.

Mrs. Wilson also served at the Conference as the State Good Citizens Day chairman. Meeting at the Continental Regency Hotel in Peoria, the conference drew representatives from 86 of Illinois' 131 chapters, with a total registration of 631 persons.

The local representatives participated in conference business meetings and in the Memorial Service for deceased state members.

The late Mrs. Helen King, chief, of the local chapter, was remembered at this ceremony. Mrs. Wilson was an assistant coordinator for the conference and Mrs. Schoen and Mrs. Williams were table hostesses at the luncheon for the Good Citizens.

The Metro-East Lutheran High School's Good Citizens, who was honored by the Drusilla Andrews Chapter along with the other area Good Citizens in February, attended the Peoria meeting. The local chapter is in Division VI, and for the past three consecutive years, Division VI has produced the top winner in the state Good Citizens contest. This year the winner was from Marshall, Belleville and Alton students were the previous winners.

Several awards were earned by the chapter's yearbook. It received the tri-color ribbon, the top award, from the National Program Committee and the top award also from the state Program Committee. Honors were also received from the National Organization for the year's theme in the program titles and for conserving printing costs in the preparation of the yearbook. The chapter also received an award for submitting 100 percent of the national dues along with the computer printout at one time. This enables the national treasurer to make a faster, more accurate accounting of members, it was noted.

The three local representatives, all of whom are past or current chapter regents, attended the State Officers Club dinner on the night preceding the opening of the conference.

Anti-slavery society. The first anti-slavery society in the United States was formed on April 14, 1775, by the Quakers of Philadelphia, Penn.

Second Baptist Church announces April revival

The Rev. James O. Mathenia, pastor of Winkle Baptist Church in Pinckneyville, Ill., will be the evangelist at a revival at Second Baptist Church, 2100 Illinois Ave., to begin Monday, April 11, and continue through April 17.

Services will be held each night at 7:30 and on Sunday morning, according to the Rev. Carl Watkins, host pastor.

Special music for the week will be under the direction of the Rev. Henry Hall Jr., music director of the church. Rev. Mathenia was born in Steele, Mo., and is married to the former Ruth A. Haggard. They are the parents of four grown children. Two sons are pastors, one is a church deacon and their daughter is an active church worker in Pinckneyville.

The guest speaker will be baptized in 1942 at the Second Baptist and in 1944 was ordained into the gospel ministry at Second Baptist after he was called to pastor a church in Louisville, Ill. From 1944 to 1973 he has served at several churches in Illinois and in 1973 he assumed the duties of minister at Winkle Baptist Church, where he still serves.

Rev. Mathenia has held

REV. MATHENIA

several offices in Southern Baptist Churches in Illinois including moderator for three associations, member of the board of the Illinois State Baptist Association, member of the State Missions Committee and the State Historical Committee and vice-president of the Pastors' Conference of the Illinois Baptist State Association.

A nursery will be available during the week and the public is invited to attend, according to Rev. Watkins.

Parenting Classes at SEMC begin Thursday

Parents interested in learning more about the proper care of newborns are being invited to attend the Parenting Classes sponsored by the obstetrical and pediatric nurses of St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City.

Conducted in the Wisconsin Room on the first floor of the West Wing, the classes will meet Thursday from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.; May 5 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., and June 2 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Class topics are: On Thursday, April 7: Post-partum exercises, temperatures and fever control, care for a baby with diarrhea, diaper rash and infant nutrition.

On May 5: Infant nutrition, breastfeeding and sibling rivalry and safety.

June 2: Immunizations, care for a baby with a cold, hygiene and post-partum exercises.

Open to the general public, the classes are free with free parking validation for those individuals attending classes. Parents may attend the classes alone or bring newborns with them.

For more information or to make reservations, parents may contact St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 798-3043.

Seminar on medications

Persons who would like to be better informed about prescription and non-prescription drug products on the market today, may be interested in a workshop at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education, the class will meet on Mondays from 7 until 9 p.m. in Room 2419 of Peck Classroom Building, beginning April 11. Registration is $30.

Taught by a registered pharmacist, coursework will focus on antibiotics, pain killers, tranquilizers, blood pressure medications, cough/cold products, laxatives and analgesics. Participants also will be introduced to the basic pharmacology of different drug classes, common side effects and possible interactions between drugs.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting the SIUE Office of Continuing Education by calling 1-822-3210.

As a social project, the scouts attended the St. Louis Steamers-Chicago Stings indoor soccer game in St. Louis, at the Checkerdome. They also had lunch at the Old St. Louis Pizza Factory.

As another project this month, the scouts hiked the Grafton-Marquette Trail led by Eagle Scout Steve Kusmierczak Jr.

The trail is operated by Boy Scout Troop 88 of St. Patrick Church in Grafton and is a 10-mile circular trail which begins and ends at the church. This trail offered the scouts wildlife, nature, wooded hills and creeks as they traveled.

On the banks of the Illinois River, just above Grafton, they viewed a monument erected in honor of Father Marquette, priest and explorer. The inscription on the monument said, "at this place in early August 1673, Marquette, Joliet and five companions entered Illinois, dawnheralds of religion, civil government and consensatubator."

The monument was located at this point because it was there the mouth of the Illinois was located in the time of Marquette. The scouts learned. It was dedicated on Sept. 1, 1929, by the Most Rev. James A. Griff.

'Creative Cakes' is club program

The Madison County Christian Women's Club will feature "Creative Cakes" at its "Happy Birthday Luncheon," Tuesday, April 12, at noon. The two-hour luncheon program will be held at Rudy's Restaurant in Troy. Carolyn Ashcroft from Collinsville, will give a demonstration on decorating homemade cakes.

Special music for the occasion will be presented by Susan Morris, a soprano soloist from Troy.

Mrs. Jo Jean Voelkel, the guest speaker, is from Belleville and is a collector of antiques and dolls.

The club is part of an international organization which has over 2,000 similar groups across the North American Continent. A unique feature of the groups is that there is no formal membership of dues. All women are invited to attend. The cost of the luncheon is $3.85, payable at the door.

A free nursery for pre-schoolers will be provided at the Christian Fellowship School (Church), located on the frontage road north of the Union 76 Truck Stop. Reservations for the luncheon are essential and can be made by calling Margaret 288-8672, Joann 667-2995, or Betty 654-5991 by noon, Friday, April 8.

Friendship Baptist to mark 50th anniversary

The congregation of Friendship Baptist Church, 1247 Klein St., Venice, Ill., will celebrate its 50th anniversary at special ceremonies to be held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, April 10.

Theme of the observance will be "Going On With The Spirit," according to the Rev. Lonnie C. Calmes, host pastor.

Among the churches invited to participate in the events are, The Prospect Hill Baptist Church in St. Louis, pastored by the Rev.

Adrian Jones. He will serve as an alternate for the program.

Also, The Memorial Baptist Church of St. Louis, whose minister is the Rev. Seamus Boyce, Rev. Boyce will deliver the anniversary message, Rev. Calmes added.

The only surviving charter member of the church is Gus Scruggs. Area residents are invited to attend the special program, the host minister said.

Troop leadership training session

Junior leaders of Boy Scout Troop 88, sponsored by St. Joseph Catholic Church, met each month from November through March for Troop Leadership Training sessions.

Topics covered included, troop meetings, board of review for advancement, troop leadership council and leadership in general.

The final session was an overnight event held in the troop meeting room following the theme of camping and hiking leadership. The scouts studied campfires, scout camping, patrol method, duty roster, campsite setup and breakdown, first aid equipment, campmaster's call, camp leadership, hiking and the troop's green folder.

Instructor for the sessions were Junior Assistant Scoutmasters Steve Kusmierczak and Kevin Williamson. Junior leaders attending the overnight program were Kevin Williamson, Steve Kusmierczak, Senior Patrol Leader Mike Brazel, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader Joe Kusmierczak, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader Mark Brazel and Scout Ralph Walden representing the Flaming Arrow Patrol of the troop.

The session closed with each participant receiving a certificate.

As a social project, the scouts attended the St. Louis Steamers-Chicago Stings indoor soccer game in St. Louis, at the Checkerdome. They also had lunch at the Old St. Louis Pizza Factory.

As another project this month, the scouts hiked the Grafton-Marquette Trail led by Eagle Scout Steve Kusmierczak Jr.

The trail is operated by Boy Scout Troop 88 of St. Patrick Church in Grafton and is a 10-mile circular trail which begins and ends at the church. This trail offered the scouts wildlife, nature, wooded hills and creeks as they traveled.

The monument was located at this point because it was there the mouth of the Illinois was located in the time of Marquette. The scouts learned. It was dedicated on Sept. 1, 1929, by the Most Rev. James A. Griff.

fin, Bishop of Springfield in Illinois.

The arrival of that small band of men is significant to the City of Grafton as it marks the first recorded appearance of anyone in the Illinois Territory, the scouts were told.

After the hike, the participants went to the Red Baron Inn in Grafton for lunch. Transportation for the trip was provided by Ralph Walden, Larry Williamson, Ted Brazel, Steve Kusmierczak Jr., Scotts attending were Steve and Joe Kusmierczak, Kevin Williamson, Mark and Mike Brazel, Ed Hoover and Ralph Walden Jr.

JACKIE HAUG

Advisor for patient services

Jackie Haug, director of physical therapy, has been named staff advisor for patient services, according to Ted Ellermeier, executive vice president of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Granite City.

She will be responsible for assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the medical center's operations in the area of service to patients, helping to carry out the SEMC philosophy.

The philosophy calls for dignity and respect ensuring that patient expectations are met through consultation with members of the administrative team, department heads and supervisory and non-supervisory personnel.

"I see this as a definite challenge and a step forward for the hospital as a whole," she commented. Although Jackie Haug will still be responsible for the physical therapy department, Rose Bruemmer, registered physical therapist, will handle all clinical duties, maintaining the everyday operations of the department.

Lutheran campus ministry receives $2,000 grant

Lutheran Campus Ministry, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, has been awarded a $2,000 grant from Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL), one of 179 awarded last month to support Lutheran campus ministry centers across the United States.

Phil Whitlock, local AAL agent, presented Lutheran campus pastor the Rev. Larry Meitzen at SIUE, a check for his project. Its purpose is to equip interested Lutheran and other students in effective, cross-cultural communications, a basic knowledge of mid-eastern cultures, Islamics and hospitality efforts.

Area churches, campus personnel and social service agencies will be invited to take part in the workshop.

PRAYER WORKSHOP BEGINS WEDNESDAY

The Church Ministers Program at the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows in Grafton will conduct a workshop on prayer beginning Wednesday. The six-week program, conducted on consecutive Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m., will be in the Dr. Tom Dooley Center.

Each Wednesday, Father Jerry Fuller, director of the Church Ministers Program, will present a talk, followed by exercises focusing on the following types: prayer of listening, shared or spontaneous prayer; prayer of healing; mass as prayer; eastern prayer; and Jesus prayer.

For more information on the workshop on prayer, interested persons may contact the Church Ministers Program at 1-397-6200.

THREE EARN HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Three local residents who among 165 students who received a $1,000 Honor Scholarship from Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill.

The academic awards were based on high school records, written essays and on-campus interviews with Monmouth College faculty, staff, students and community supporters.

Granite City students earning scholarships are: David Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown; Amy Hartman, daughter of Frances Hartman.

Miss Hartman was also awarded a Monmouth College Talent Award in music, and Kenneth Portell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Portell.

All are seniors at Granite City High School South.

To qualify for the competition, students had to rank in the upper 15 percent of their high school class or have at least a 24 composite on their ACT.

The awards are renewable annually if the students maintain specific grade point averages.

TWO ARE ON DEAN'S LIST

Jeff Draves of Granite City, a sophomore engineering major and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Draves; and Michael Matchett of Granite City, a sophomore engineering major and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Matchett, are among 122 students at Monmouth College who are on the Dean's List for the winter academic term at the college.

To receive Dean's List recognition, a student at Monmouth must achieve a grade point average for the term of 3.666 or higher on a four-point scale while carrying a full course load.

Students listed on the Honor Roll attained a grade point average of 3.5 to 3.66 on the same scale.

Revival services set at Nazarene Church

The First Church of the Nazarene, 4701 Highway 111, will host a spring revival at the church featuring the Rev. Frank Chase as evangelist.

Revival services will be held at 7:30 p.m. on April 5 through April 10 and at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. on April 11 according to the Rev. William Roddy, host pastor.

Rev. Chase spent nearly 22 years in jails and prisons across the United States and through special experiences and events in his life turned to the ministry and eventually became an evangelist.

He will speak on his life in a direct and unaffected approach, Rev. Roddy added.

Leaving behind a life of crime and trouble, Rev. Chase recorded his experiences in the book entitled, "Love Can Open Any Door."

REV. FRANK CHASE

News notes

Governor James R. Thompson has signed House Bill 327, legislation that reforms the Illinois Unemployment Insurance system by $2 billion. The measure was approved with only one dissenting vote in both houses of the General Assembly earlier this week.

A Mississippi River crest of 39.7 feet, 9.7 feet above the St. Louis flood stage, has been forecast for Thursday; 37.9 was attained in December 1982. New factors are heavy rain here and to the north, melting snow and a rare simultaneous cresting of the Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois rivers. Some flooding already has occurred in Hannibal, Mo. Previous crests here include 43.2 feet in April 1973, 41.4 in June 1984 and 40.3 in July 1951.

Child care groups are being asked to support a state tax increase to prevent big cuts in Illinois Department of Children and Family Services programs.

Transit workers and Bi-State Agency bargainers will resume talks Thursday. The contract of bus drivers and mechanics expired Feb. 28 and has been extended to allow continued negotiations.

A tentative pact freezing wages and reducing benefits was rejected 77-21. An early retirement plan for salaried employees has been announced.

March unemployment in Illinois is estimated at 12.2 percent, compared to 13.5 percent in February, but officials say this year's economic recovery may be slow. U.S. jobs dropped from 10.4 to 10.3 percent in the past month.

Illinois Commerce Commission members would continue to be appointed, under recommendations by a state task force. A council would be created to suggest nominees. Political support is developing for making commission posts elective.

Ben S. Urban is asking that his three-year prison term be reconsidered. The Collinsville attorney, 41, says it is too harsh for his series of thefts totaling $146,788 from Madison County court funds. A defense lawyer cites embarrassment, surrendering of Urban's law license, financial hardship for the family, and proposed evidence of mitigating circumstances.

The five-cent raise per gallon in federal gasoline taxes went into effect Friday. A 10 percent tax on large trucks and trailers went up to 12 percent for trucks weighing more than 33,000 pounds and trailers above 26,000 pounds.

Restaurants and bars with 11 or more workers began Friday to allocate additional tips to waiters and waitresses whose reported tips are less than eight percent of sales; a new law does not increase tax withholding from tips but imposes the burden of proving that one's tips are below eight percent.

STILL IN HOSPITAL Kenneth Culpher, 34, Holiday Mobile Homes, remains at St. Elizabeth Medical Center recovering from injuries sustained in a traffic accident March 18.

He and a friend, Chris Hendrix, Rural Route Two, were pushing a motorcycle across Bromley Avenue at Washington Avenue when they were hit from behind by a motorist.

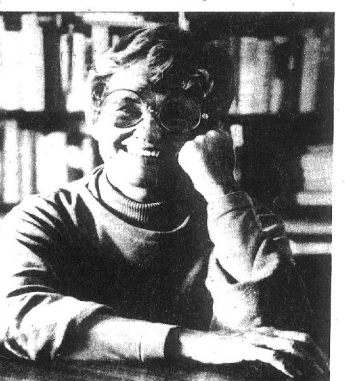

Culpher suffered large lacerations to his right leg which have necessitated skin grafts on the wounds. He also received six stitches across the bridge of his nose. He said that he had been hit by the car first then it hit the motorcycle, resulting in injuries to Hendrix.

Hendrix has been released from the medical center, but is receiving daily therapy based on an out-patient basis.

Treaty of Paris The Treaty of Paris was proclaimed on April 11, 1899, ending the Spanish-American War.

MAUREEN MEHELIC, right, a staff nurse at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, has been named to the Illinois Board of Directors of the American Heart Association. She is shown discussing the major causes of heart disease with a visitor at SEMC's recent Heart Fair. Mrs. Mehelic has worked at the medical center for 10 years in the Intensive Care Unit and the Intermediate Coronary Care Unit. A resident of Collinsville, she also is a member of the American Association of Critical Care Nurses and coordinator of the SEMC Coronary Club.

PSYCHOLOGIST TO SPEAK AT SIUE. Joanne B. Hendrick, professor of philosophy in educational psychology at the University of California at Santa Barbara, will be one of the educators featured at the three-day conference of the National Coalition for Campus Child Care, scheduled on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, April 6 through 8. According to LaVern Wilson, coordinator for the Early Childhood Education Center at SIUE and a member of the conference planning committee, childhood care centers are returning to college campuses. "Before, it was because of student needs; now, since older students have been returning to the classroom, the centers are more in demand," she said.

Doctors' Dialogue

Dear Doctor,

I am a woman of 66 years and have had serious problems, like surgery in 1973 which kept me in the hospital almost two months. I had an infection which they never found why. It was to correct a hiatal hernia. Then after opening a duodenal ulcer, my spleen was removed, which I never did get an answer why. And more recently, had to have gall bladder removed.

This is all by way of letting you know some of my background. My questions now is about calcium in my blood, which was found in a blood chemistry about two years ago, and I was told to keep dairy products out of my diet. That is about all I found out. Not what to expect, and I've had several blood tests since.

Now I'm having a lot of symptoms that are painful and strange. And I'm tired after the least exertion. I really don't know who to go to now. That is, to find a truthful answer. Even my genealogist hedged on my questions. I don't think they know much.

E.M.C.

Dear E.M.C.,

It is obvious that you have a complicated medical history which makes it difficult to determine what problems you might be having. It does seem apparent, though, that you are having difficulty communicating with your physician or physicians, as the case may be. I would recommend that you first consult with your physician and ask him if he would have some time to discuss these problems with you. If you feel your questions are not handled satisfactorily, I would then recommend you call the Madison County Medical Society for a list of physicians. If you should find a change in order.

Dr. Lawrence Harmon
(Dr. Harmon is an internist and cardiologist at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City. He also is on staff at St. Mary's Health Center in Clayton, Mo., and Oliver C. Anderson Hospital in Maryville. Questions may be directed to Public Relations Department, St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Granite City, Ill. 62040, telephone 798-3167.)

STEAL TOOLS, JACK

A heavy duty floor jack, assorted hand tools, a disc sander, socket sets and two tires were stolen from an auto parked in the rear yard at the home of Patrick McNish, 2314 W. 23rd St., he reported at 10:10 p.m. Friday.

WEAPON GONE

A 38-caliber chief's special blue steel handgun in an insulated case, valued at $400, which had been left under the front seat of a vehicle parked at Woodrome Oldsmobile, 2614 Grand Ave., reported last week.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO BE HELD IN AND FOR THE HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER OF THE TOWN OF VENICE IN THE COUNTY OF MADISON, STATE OF ILLINOIS,

APRIL 12, 1983
1:45 P.M.

THE CITY HALL BROADWAY & KLEIN VENICE, ILLINOIS

ON THE QUESTION OF THE PROPOSED 1983-1984 TAX LEVY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Highway Commissioner of the Town of Venice shall hold and conduct a public hearing at 1:45 p.m., Tuesday, April 12, 1983, at the City Hall, Broadway and Klein, Venice, Illinois, on the question of the adoption of the 1983-1984 tax levy, which, as proposed, would exceed the 1982-83 tax levy extension by more than 105%.

As extended by the Madison County Clerk, the 1982-1983 tax levy of the Highway Commissioner of the Town of Venice will produce the following revenue: $36,977.00

The proposed 1983-1984 tax levy of the Highway Commissioner of the Town of Venice would produce the following estimated amount:

General Road Fund $41,891.00

The percentage increase in the 1983-1984 aggregate tax levy over the 1982-1983 aggregate tax levy is 13.29%.

A copy of the 1983-1984 tax levy is on file in the Venice Township office, 1502 5th Street, Madison, Illinois.

DATED AT MADISON, ILLINOIS, THIS 31st DAY OF MARCH, 1983.

/s/ William J. McGarrahan
TOWN CLERK OF THE HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER OF THE TOWN OF VENICE, MADISON COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Allege GC man seeks own arrest

Granite City police filed charges of battery, unlawful use of a weapon and reckless conduct against a man who asked to be arrested at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Gary W. Catterson, 25, of 1739 Edison Ave., reportedly called police headquarters from a tavern and allegedly asked officers to come and pick him up before he killed someone, reports state.

Upon arriving in the 1700 block of Edison Avenue, Catterson ran to the squad car yelling at the officer to arrest him, repeated his earlier statement and said that he had been in an argument with people at an address in that block.

The man had blood on the front of his shirt and on his hands, but related that he had cut himself and allegedly asked to be arrested, an officer said.

At that point, Sylvester Torres, also of the 1700 block of Edison, came out of a nearby dwelling, stating he wanted to sign a complaint against Catterson.

Torres told officers that he answered a knock at the door and alleged Catterson rushed in, pushed the victim down and grabbed him by the neck, placing a large butcher knife against his chest.

He alleged the intruder cut and stabbed him before the victim managed to push him away and ran. Catterson then chased him around the building with the knife in his hand, Torres said.

A neighbor reported hearing noises and seeing the men outside, with one man pinned against the wall. The neighbor yelled at the men and the intruder left the area.

Torres suffered a slight puncture wound and cut to the left upper chest. It is not known if he sought medical attention.

Upon turning himself in to police, Catterson was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he declined treatment for cuts to his hands and fingers.

Meanwhile, officers talked to other residents in the vicinity of the incident. A woman, who claimed to be the girlfriend of the man who asked to be jailed, alleged knowing nothing about the incident.

However, a knife with a nine-inch blade allegedly found laying on the table near the front door of her apartment, had blood on it and reportedly was identified by the victim as the knife used by the man under arrest.

At 8:50 a.m. Sunday, Catterson asked to be taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where his injuries were examined. He was returned to jail until 7 p.m. Sunday, when he again was transported to the medical center and admitted to undergo surgery.

STEAL STEREO

A stereo valued at $69 and a tape player were taken in a burglary from the home of Leo Holzman, 1038 W. 23rd St., Venice, it was reported at 12:45 a.m. Saturday. Entry was gained by forcing a front window and unlocking the door.

Madison discusses widening ambulance service territory

by DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

A request from Nameoki Township for ambulance service to its unincorporated area was read at the Madison City Council meeting last week.

Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols also asked for a meeting of Madison officials to discuss a possible contract for ambulance service to the city of Venice.

"To keep our insurance in force, we must have a signed contract with anyone requesting service before the ambulance can go outside the city limits," Mayor Mike Sasyk explained to the council members.

The mayor and members of the finance committee will attend a meeting with the Venice officials Tuesday night preceding their regular council session to discuss a possible contract.

A request from the Venice-Madison American Legion Post for ambulance service, if needed at the post, was tabled until after the meeting with Venice officials.

Fire Chief Mike Macek announced he is working with the Madison County Community Development office in an effort to seek application for funds to assist the senior citizens and low-income families who want and need an alarm system or smoke detector in their homes.

In other business, Alderman William Gushieff told the council he has secured the names of veterans who were omitted on the memorial plaque and they will be recorded there in the near future.

Councilmen approved paying bills in the amount of $30,071 and John Dutko reported 32 permits were issued during the past month.

Petitions approved included one from Earl Voss to operate an automotive business at 1516 Twelfth St. and from Larry Yoboy to operate a child care center at 922-24 Iowa St.

The aldermen also approved a petition from Carl and Irene Townsend of 1920 Harris St. for their property to be annexed into the city of Madison.

Approval was granted to Illinois Power Co. to work in the 700, 800 and 900 blocks of Jefferson Street under the supervision of Street Superintendent Robert Robins.

A letter from W.F. "Mike" Strange, candidate for alderman of the Third Ward, asking permission to hold a block party, was referred to the city attorney to investigate the liability to the city before permission can be granted.

Mayor Sasyk spoke vehemently against the Madison Concerned Citizens, who plan to make a survey of residents' feelings about the proposed cable and burglar alarm system in Madison.

"This would be a costly and time consuming project for anyone and is ridiculous, since the city already has taken the survey and the figures available. When the system was instituted, the cost including the telephone line rental—for a business was $16 per month. However, with the phone company's increases, the cost now $60 a month," the mayor explained.

"We worked with Waggoner Trucking on securing payment for his business alarm system and have utilized these funds by investment to keep the program in force. A conservative figure as to the income from the system would be $50,000. Mayor Sasyk added.

"The city of Madison is still working on a plan to provide senior citizens with the same service at a small monthly cost and no installation fee. What the people do not understand, I guess, is the same cable we have installed can also be used for cable television when it becomes available," the mayor noted.

Madison boy struck by auto

A 6-year-old Madison boy was transferred to Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, with head injuries after he was struck by an automobile Thursday at 3:25 p.m.

Timothy J. Dixon, of 2040 Hildebrand St., was taken by Madison Fire Department to St. Elizabeth Medical Center following the incident.

Robert A. Hollenbeck, of 2020 McCasland Ave., told police that he was driving eastbound on Third Street when a vehicle passed him. As the auto passed, Hollenbeck said that the driver ran into the front of a parked vehicle and behind the moving auto.

He told police that he applied his car's brakes, but Dixon ran into the front passenger side of the vehicle.

CONDUCT CHARGE FOLLOWS ARGUMENT

Responding to a disturbance at 2826 Victory Drive at 9:35 p.m. Saturday, officers saw several people standing in the front yard and noted it appeared a fight had taken place.

Theodore Valencia Sr. of that address alleged two of his boys had been fighting, but said that he had broken it up. At that point, one man began yelling at the officer and his father and was ordered to go inside the dwelling.

Theodore Valencia Jr., 25, of the Victory Drive address, allegedly refused to leave the yard and was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

STAMP AND COIN DISPLAYS

by Venice pupils capture trophies, awards and ribbons. Social studies, reading and art "come alive" for them as they researched numismatic and philately topics at the school library and Venice Public Library. Stamp enthusiasts also were able to obtain background information at the Madison and Granite City post offices. Topics of special interest were U.S. commemoratives, flag stamps, American presidents, human rights and freedom stamps, Christmas stamps, animals, important personages, transportation, American coins, foreign stamps and silver dollars. Dr. Alice Purdes is the teacher and exhibits were judged by Mrs. Linda Knipping and Mrs. Grattana Ponce. In the front row, left to right, are Darnell Wallace, fourth place; Cameron Latham, first place (Lincoln pennies); Tonja Smith, first place (U.S. stamps); and Andrea King, third place. From the left in the back row are Tracha McGhee, second place; Terrell Wright, fourth place; Michael Campbell, second place; Yolanda Scruggs, third place, and John White, second place.

A wide variety of activities, deadlines and the start of new classes for the spring quarter will occupy the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus next week.

A series of non-credit classes for working persons who want to learn more about microwave or specialty cooking begins Tuesday, sponsored by SIUE.

Italian cooking will be studied Tuesday evenings from 6 to 8, beginning tomorrow at Edwardsville High School. Registration is $50.

Basic microwave cooking will be taught on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m., starting this week in the conference area of the SIUE University Center. Registration is $30.

Chinese cooking will be taught on Mondays from 7 to 9 p.m., beginning April 11 at Edwardsville High School. Registration is $45.

A one-session class in the preparation of appetizers and hors d'oeuvres by microwave will be offered Wednesday, April 27, in the conference area of the University Center at SIUE. Registration is $10.

A class on vegetables and fruits will be Thursday, May 5, and a class in baking desserts will be offered Tuesday, May 10. Registration is $10 each.

Additional information on the cooking lessons available from Lynn Dietrich in the SIUE Office of Continuing Education at 1-692-3210.

Tomorrow is the deadline for women to apply to be exhibitors in the 1983 Womanfest Arts and Crafts Fair at SIUE. The fair will be April 21 and 22 in Goshen Lounge of the University Center.

Arts and crafts exhibitors will be selected by a jury to prevent duplication of displays and provide the best of the arts and crafts by women. Media include textiles, photography, leather, clay, metal, glass, drawing, paper, painting and mixed media.

Women interested in having their works judged may call 1-692-2178.

Doris Bell will discuss victimization of the elderly during the Dialogue with Senior Citizens from 1:30 until 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Mississippi Room of the University Center. Mrs. Bell is an associate professor in the School of Nursing at SIUE. She will discuss how the elderly can protect themselves from robbery, harassment and other crimes. More information is available by telephoning the Gerontology Program at 1-692-3454.

A discussion group affiliated with "Great Decisions '83," a national program sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association, will host a series of meetings on the SIUE campus beginning Wednesday.

The group will look at U.S.-Soviet relations from both sides and will discuss which nations should have atomic weapons, considering the views of countries with and without these weapons.

A $2 fee covers all sessions, which last until noon. The group will meet each Wednesday from April 6 to May 25 from 10:30 until noon in the University Center's Mississippi Room. Interested persons may contact Professor Glossop at 1-692-3376 for additional information.

A three-day conference of the National Coalition for Campus Child Care opens Wednesday at SIUE and continues through Friday. The conference is designed to give educators and directors of child care centers the opportunity to attend seminars on a wide variety of topics concerning child care. Participants may choose the seminars they wish to attend. More information on the conference is available by calling LaVerne Wilson of the Conference Planning Committee at 1-692-2556.

The Student Program Board has announced its spring quarter schedule of films in the DeJa Vu Room of the University Center, except for Sunday Shows, which are in the Tower Lake Commons Building. The series begins with "Silver Streak" (PG) April 7 at 2:30 p.m., April 8 at 7 and 9:30 p.m., April 9 at 7 p.m., and April 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Inventive comedy, light-hearted signing with a satiric edge and the most popular bands on the college circuit make up "Entertainment Night" at SIUE Thursday, April 7, sponsored by the Student Program Board.

The attractions will be in the upper Deck Restaurant adjacent to the Faculty Club. Satellite facilities from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. and in Meridian Ballroom from 8 to 11 p.m. The Upper Deck will host two comedy acts, "Laughing Stock," a company of three men and two women, will involve the audience for each performance. They will be followed by Stuart Mitchell, a singer-songwriter who brings such unusual musical items as a plunger cup and a sci-fi blaster gun into his act.

Admission on the Upper Deck show is $1 for students and $1.50 for the public.

The Caruso Brothers, four brothers from ages 19 to 25, use a total of 12 instruments in their April 7 act, scheduled for Meridian Ballroom. Admission is $3 for students and $3.50 for the general public.

Alzheimer's Disease will be discussed at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Mississippi Room of the University Center. Alzheimer's Disease is a degenerative disorder of the nerve cells of the brain which results in speech disturbances and the progressive loss of mental facilities. It is especially prevalent in older persons.

Carol Sterling, social service coordinator at Four Fountains Convalescent Center in Belleville, will be the guest speaker.

A symposium designed to provide health care personnel, clergy, business and industry leaders, students and the general public will be a deeper understanding of ethical issues that arise in their personal and professional lives. It is scheduled from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, April 8, in Room 245 of the Peck Classroom Building. It is free and open to the public.

The symposium will address the topics, "Issues in Bioethics: Death and Dying," "Issues in Business Ethics," and "Issues in Ethics and the Academic Profession." Each panel will have a principal speaker and three commentators who will respond to the speakers. Question and answer periods will follow.

"Feminism and Racism" will be the theme of the Midwest Division conference of the Society for Women in Philosophy April 8 through 10 on the campus. Several sessions will be open to the public.

On April 8, from 8 to 9:30 p.m., the discussion will be entitled, "Have We Got a Theory for You? Feminist Theory, Cultural Imperialism and the Demand for the Women's Voice." Vicky Spelman, assistant professor of philosophy at Saint College, will present the "Anglo" voice and Maria Lugones, assistant professor of philosophy at Carleton College and a citizen of Argentina, will be the "Hispana" voice.

The conference also will include a panel discussion on feminism and racism in the Maple-Doogwood Room of the University Center from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, April 9.

The Interconnections Between Gender, Race and Class, as Seen Through the Experience of Black Women in South America" will be discussed at the SIUE Faculty Club from 10 a.m. to noon on Sunday, April 10 by Sita Rancho and Kathryn Russell.

A workshop in learning how to deal with stress will be offered at SIUE Friday, April 8, in the Oak Room on the second floor of the University Center from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Dr. Paul Lloyd of Southeast Missouri State University will conduct the workshop, which is sponsored by the SIUE Chapter of Psi Chi, the national honor society for psychology majors. The workshop is free, but a $5 deposit must be paid in advance to hold a reservation.

Additional information is available by calling Denise Blake at 1-692-6318.

Professor Richard Allington of State University of New York will explore the differences and poor readers and the best ways to teach during the 10th annual Spring Reading Conference for teachers and administrators Saturday, April 9. The one-day seminar will be in the conference area of the University Center from 9:30 a.m. until noon. Registration is $4 in advance or $5 at the door. Interested persons may contact the Reading Center at 1-692-3496.

University Theater at SIUE will conduct company auditions for Summer Show '83 on Saturday and Sunday, April 9 and 10, in the Communications Building, beginning at 9 a.m.

Persons wishing to audition for acting positions and technical jobs may call 1-692-2773 for audition or interview appointments.

There will be three production this year: Randall's "6 Rows in Va.," which will be presented July 6 through 9; Coward's "Blithe Spirit," playing July 20 to 23, and the Rogers and Hammerstein musical, "Oklahoma," which will end the season Aug. 4 to 6 and 11 to 14.

A company of 22 will be selected from the auditions and staff interviews. Actors should prepare a low-minute comic monologue and a popular show tune, furnishing their own sheet music. A piano accompanist will be provided.

Those interviewing for technical positions should bring portfolios of their work.

All non-union personnel, whether or not they are affiliated with the university, are eligible to audition.

County data processing using new machines in new offices

Madison County Data Processing Director Pat Morrison may be the most misunderstood man in county government.

It's not that Morrison can't deal with people. But when he starts talking about mega-bytes, mainframes and disk drives, it's easy for the average guy to get lost in the terms of computer automation.

That's why it's not always easy for Morrison to tell other county officials about the progress or the needs of his department. However, one doesn't have to be a computer whiz to see how new equipment and new offices are making data processing more efficient.

New computer hardware (the machines that do the computing) acquired last year has now taken over most of the old equipment's duties, and the switch to data processing's new offices is nearly completed.

"It's coming in about two weeks sooner than anticipated and everything is going very well," Morrison said. "Everything has been tested. I know it's going to work."

The department is finishing the move from the cramped quarters of the old Edwardsville post office to the Casens Building, which also holds the county's Manpower offices. The move is just across Hillsboro Avenue in downtown Edwardsville, but it has made a big difference.

The old offices were packed with equipment, documents and supplies, with storage spilling over into hallways and offices. Heavy rains would cause minor floods in the basement, and there was no room for more equipment or more people.

But the new location is much more comfortable and efficient. There are separate offices for documents that were stored in the foyer of the old office. A separate station is being set up where other county departments can turn in data to be run on the computer and finished data can be picked up.

The computer room itself is a vast improvement. The various pieces of equipment sit in a well-lit room with appropriate air-conditioning and humidity controls to keep the sensitive hardware happy.

The IBM 4331 central processing unit, the "brains" of the system which does the computing, looks like a deep freeze. It is half the size of the old computer but has four times the storage capacity.

The other new pieces of equipment, such as the disk drives and the line printer, also do much more than their older counterparts and take up much less space.

The only work still being done on the old equipment in the old office is the real estate tax system. Real estate will switch over to the new equipment within the next two weeks, which will complete the transformation.

Other services provided by data processing include the county's new general ledger system, the county's payroll, voter registration and jury selection, as well as bills for the county's sewer district.

CHARGE DRIVER AFTER ACCIDENT

Troy E. Coleman, 46, of 2012 Collinsville Ave., Madison, was charged with driving while his license was revoked and failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident last week.

The tickets were issued following an accident in the 2400 block of Missouri Avenue when Coleman's car reportedly struck a van, parked at the curb, owned by Pauline Turnbough, 2411 Missouri Ave.

Coleman, who was injured in the crash and taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, was released to police after treatment. Later, he was released from custody upon posting a $102 cash bond.

Barbershop group to mark 45th year

April 11 marks the 45th birthday of an organization that began in an upstairs room in Tulsa, Oklahoma. That day in 1938 a tax attorney, O.C. Cash, and a few friends gathered for a few hours of singing the old songs in barbershop harmony. It was the beginning of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

Today the SPEBSQSA boasts about 38,000 members throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.

The Collinsville chapter of the Barber Shop Society is commemorating the birthday with guest nights scheduled every Monday in April and also on May 2. The guests nights will begin at 8 p.m. and will be conducted at the Collinsville VFW Hall on Vandalia.

"Men of all ages and interests are invited to learn more about our chapter and join in some enjoyable singing," said Kent Fair, chapter president. "You don't have to be an expert singer or even know how to read music. However, you must enjoy the fun that comes from singing," Fair said.

Recently, the Collinsville chapter presented its annual show that attracted a near-capacity crowd at Webster Junior High School. The show's theme, "It's A Great Day For The Irish," allowed the chapter to sing some old chestnuts of an Irish-American flavor from the turn of the century.

"We're not really an 'old-fashion' organization," Fair said. "We have members with an average age of about 35 to 40. We like to think of our endeavors as preserving a style of singing that is as American as apple pie and baseball. In addition to 'preserving' we also manage to have a great time."

Pontoon Beach man, 24, charged

Called to a reported disturbance in the 1400 block of Iowa Street last week, officers found Karen Schallert of St. Louis, bleeding from the nose, and Robert D. Niemeyer, 24, of 4033 Breckenridge Lane.

The woman declined to sign a complaint and Niemeyer was ordered to leave the area several times. He allegedly refused and became belligerent, pushing at an officer.

Niemeyer was taken into custody and charged with disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Early the next morning, he complained of leg pains and was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was treated and returned to jail. He was released some hours later upon posting a $154 cash bond.

PURSE RETURNED

Shelly Diaz of Wilson Park Lane reported last week that her purse was removed from her auto while the vehicle was parked in an alley between East 25th Street and Hodges Avenue. Several hours later she notified police that the purse had been returned with the credit cards intact. Still missing, however, were a driver's license and social security card.

USE THIS YEAR'S LEAVES FOR NEXT YEAR'S GARDEN.

CONTINUOUSLY ADD LEAVES TO TOP OF HEAP. BY THE FOLLOWING SEASON THE LEAVES SHOULD BE DECOMPOSED AND GREAT TO HELP BUILD UP THE SOIL.
